- Tzitziki

Listerine® is reinstating Kof-K hashgacha on Listerine® Pocketpaks® due to the numerous telephone calls that Johnson & Johnson received from consumers. The product will bear a Kof-K symbol in the very near future. In the interim, all Listerine Pocketpaks currently available are certified kosher by the Kof-K, even without the Kof-K symbol.

Kosher Certified Antacids: Walgreens brand antacid is Kosher certified when bearing the Star-K symbol. A Kosher symbol is not necessary on the Tums package. The products are still certified by Diamond-K.

Trader Joe’s is selling glatt kosher meat under the EKB (Empire Kosher Beef) label, certified by the Star-K. This is not to be confused with Trader Joe’s own brand of non-glatt kosher meat. When purchasing meat at Trader Joe’s, consumers are advised to ensure that the label on the meat reflects the EKB brand.

New Yorker Bakery bread products, produced exclusively at 9443 Georgia Avenue, Silver Spring, MD 20910, are under the supervision of the Star-K only when bearing the Star-K Pareve label. Please note: Star-K’s supervision is limited to the wholesale division of the New Yorker Bakery facility, as mentioned above, and does not include any retail outlets of the New Yorker Bakery, either under its name or the brand name Breads Unlimited.

Mincha at the STAR-K office building is Mon. - Thurs. at 1:50 p.m.
